

Biographies

Prof. Colette Shortt is a science graduate of the National University of Ireland, Cork with qualifications in nutrition (MSc, PhD) and a business (MBA) from the School of Business Management, University of Surrey. As part of her post-graduate education, she has conducted research in Ireland, Canada and at the Rowett Research Institute, Scotland. She was one of the founding editorial board members of Trends in Food Science & Technology. Before joining Johnson & Johnson where she is currently Regulatory Director, Emerging Science and Innovation, Consumer Global Franchise Organisation, she was Science Director at Yakult UK and held a nutrition position at SmithKline Beecham Consumer Healthcare. Colette is a J&J Consumer Fellow, Registered nutritionist and Fellow of the Association for Nutrition (RNutr) and the Royal Society of Medicine. She is also Chair of the International Sweeteners Association, board member of the International Life Science Institute Europe and is a Visiting Professor to the University of Ulster.

